Dear Mr. Cooksey:

Thank you for your quick action. I have already written the Committee with comments regarding our conversation and the actions you agreed to take. As noted in our conversation, the Committee and I will take a closer look at your website over the next few weeks and let you know if we have any requested changes. Also, I did take a look at that article you sent. Definitely would be an interesting case study.

Thank you again for your responsiveness and your willingness to bring your services into compliance.

Sincerely,
- Charla
